Unwelcome Sexual Contact

The difference between flirting and sexual misconduct

Sometimes people who make sexual jokes, comments, or innuendos laugh off their behavior as flirting, and you might be tempted to do the same. So what's the difference between flirting and sexual misconduct?

Flirting is...

- welcome attention.
- goes both ways.
- making you feel flattered or attractive.
- making you feel in control.
- making you feel good about yourself.
- legal in school.

Sexual misconduct is...

- not wanted.
- one-sided.
- making you feel put down or ugly.
- making you feel powerless.
- making you feel bad or dirty.
- a violation of school rules and may be a crime.

For Questions and Concerns

Contact your school administrator.

If you still need help, the following offices can assist:

- Your local Educational Service Center
- Educational Equity Compliance (213) 241-7682

Criminal activity should be reported to Los Angeles School Police at (213) 625-6631 or local law enforcement.
